

Archdiocese of Glasgow

St Andrew's Metropolitan Cathedral

Choir Recruitment 2024/25

Now into my 2nd full year as Director of Music in our Cathedral, I write again to extend an invitation to parishioners across our Archdiocese.

One of my immediate challenges was to develop the choir and it is in this regard that I write to you to draw this to your attention and to encourage you to think about possibly joining us in the Cathedral.

I am looking for people to sing in the choir in all four sections – soprano, alto tenor and bass and whilst the ability to read music would be beneficial, it is by no means essential.

This invitation is extended to anyone across our Archdiocese who may have an interest in choral singing but is absolutely not intended to draw parishioners away from your own parish music ministry, rather is for those for whom, for one reason or another, there is no choir, music group or music ministry that involves you.

A commitment would involve you attending as many rehearsals as you can on a Thursday evening from 7.00 until 9.00 and singing at the 12.00 o'clock Mass on a Sunday.

Are you interested?

Do you want to come even on a trial basis?

Many thanks to all those who rallied to the call last year and are now making a significant contribution to the life of our Cathedral.
